

7 1 Basics of World Faiths

Using various sources I have sought to present some key facts to act as a basic framework especially for 'teachers with other specialisms' (TWOS) to find a starting point for understanding each of the six key world faiths. All Items in bold are to be found in that faith's Glossary which contain further details of these words. If there is an asterisk before the bold type, this is a person who appears in the Biography section at the end of the Glossary section.

This information is taken from numerous sources and is only a short summary, there are many books which offer a fuller explanation. It is important to note that there are a variety of Ideas on some subjects within each faith. Key items included are Founders and Shapers: Succession and Early History; Sacred Texts; Creation stories; Major Festivals; World Situation; Holiest Sites; Barnsley History; Local places of worship; Local population.

Basics of the Christian Faith

Founders and Shapers The Christian faith follows the teachings of *Jesus (of Nazareth), born around 4 BCE, in Bethlehem to the Virgin Mary, a descendent of King David. The traditional birth stories are often re-enacted in Nativity plays.

Following a Baptism by *John the Baptist, around the age of thirty, for three years he became a wandering teacher, preacher and miracle worker. He gathered followers including Twelve Apostles (or disciples). His teachings were one of many nuances within the Jewish faith at the time. He was proclaimed to be the Messiah (or Christ), and was crucified in Jerusalem, around 30 CE, the re-enactment of these stories are called Passion Plays. Three days later his followers proclaimed his Resurrection from the dead.

Fifty days later, these followers were changed by the events of Whitsun (occurring on the Jewish festival Of Pentecost) and though continuing within the Jewish faith preached also the teachings of *Jesus, under the leadership, among others of *Peter, one of his key disciples.

A Jewish Pharisee by the name of Saul of Tarsus, was converted and changed his name to *Paul. He brought the Christian faith to Europe. He founded many churches and wrote letters to them and individuals, these form the majority of the New Testament. Thus his teachings on living as Christians have been very influential.

Succession and Early History Originally a part of the Jewish faith, early debates included

whether to be a follower of *Jesus you must also become a Jew, it was decided they did not. Gradually non-Jewish members out-numbered Jewish members. At different times in the Roman Empire the Christian faith was tolerated or made illegal and persecuted. The Eastern Roman (Byzantium) Emperor *Constantine the Great had a vision of the cross before a battle in 312 CE. he converted to the Christian faith and ordered his Empire to the same. He convened the Council of Nicea in 325 CE, which clarified the key tenets of the faith in the Nicene Creed, including the belief of God as Trinity. Eventually, it was declared to be illegal to remain a practicing Jew after converting to Christianity. Jewish Christians became rare and this is still the case.

The Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches split in 1054 CE, with Protestant churches emerging from Catholicism after the Reformation, whose founders included *Martin Luther. King. *Henry VIII of England converted his kingdom to Protestantism to gain a divorce.

Sacred Texts The Holy Bible is (usually) a collection of 66 'books'. The Jewish tenakh as the Old Testament (39 'books'), written mainly in Hebrew, and the New Testament (27 'books'), written mainly in Greek. The New Testament consists of four life-stories of *Jesus (the Gospels), an early history (Acts), various letters (Epistles) and an apocalypse (The Revelation). The official Canon was agreed in 397 CE at the Council of Carthage. Some Bibles also included books sometimes gathered as the Apocrypha. There are many translations and paraphrases currently available. The Bible Is the most widely owned, sold and translated book in history.

Creation Stories Follows the two key Jewish creation stories (Genesis 1-3), with a pre-creation narrative included at the being of the Gospel of *John (John 1), stating *Jesus' part in this.

Major Festivals Advent (Light festival); Christmas (*Jesus' birth celebration): Lent (Preparation); Holy Week and Easter (celebration of *Jesus' death and Resurrection): Ascension and Pentecost (the beginnings of the Church) as well as Harvest.

World Situation Currently the world's largest religion, spread throughout the globe, with over 2 billion followers, over half of which are part of the denomination, the Roman Catholic Church.

Holiest Sites Most of the sites of *Jesus are in the Holy Land, modern day Palestine/Israel. Holy sites otherwise would be the Vatican City, centre of the majority Roman Catholic Church. British sites would include Canterbury, Iona. Lindisfarne (or Holy Island), Walsingham and Yorkshire's own York Minster, Whitby Abbey and Fountains Abbey.

Barnsley History

Monk Bretton Priory, at Lundwood is a key historical site. Research to validate the position and history of St. Helen's Well continues. Churches of various ages are found throughout Barnsley. The founder of Methodism, the Reverend John Wesley, preached a number of times in Barnsley (including on some steps recently moved to the front of Emmanuel Methodist Church). From one of the early families to follow his teachings and practice, came the Reverend *James Hudson-Taylor. founder of the China Inland Mission and probably the most important Christian leader to come from Barnsley.

Local places of worship

There are many churches throughout Barnsley, including Catholic Churches and all the key (white-led) Christian Protestant denominations. Most are happy to arrange visits for schools.

Local Population

176,856, according to the optional question in the 2001 CE national census, out of a borough population of 218,063.

Basics of the Hindu Dharma

Founders and Shapers

The ancient religion of India, with origins in and around the second millennium BCE. It is not a revealed religion in the sense of a single founder, rather a faith that has evolved within a culture.

Succession and Early History

Its diversity and flexibility are probably the keys to its survival for almost 4000 years. Its origins can be traced to a nomadic people of the Central Asian steppes, the Arvans. They invaded and ruled northern India. Influential among their people were the priests, the Brahmins. One of the key later philosophers was *Sankara. *Ram Mohan Roy and *Vivekananda were all key thinkers in the developments after the influence of the British in India. The most profound influence globally was probably *Mohandas Gandhi a Guiarah lawyer whose life and social action led to his receiving the nickname Mahatma ('great soul').

Sacred Texts

The hymns of the Brahmins, the Rig Veda, over a thousand hymns from the period 1500-1000 BCE. Further key texts are the Brahmanas/Brahma Sutras and Upanishads (of which 108 survive) were developed around 600 BCE. The most popular and widely read is the Bhagavad Gita, 18 chapters of the epic Mahabharata, created around 300 BCE.

Creation stories

The creative force within the god Brahma, was brought into being and sustained by Vishnu and then annihilated by Shiva.

Major Festivals Baisakhi (Harvest/New Year), Divali (Light festival), Holi. Kumbh Mela happens once every 12 years.

World Situation

The main religion within the secular state of India and with a global following of around 900 million.

Holiest Sites

Ganga (The Sacred River Ganges): the cities of Varanasi Vrindavan, Haridwar, Allahbad.

Barnsley History and Local places of worship

A number of Hindus are found within the local Indian community, most keeping a shrine in their own homes. Many travel to neighbouring Yorkshire towns for collective worship, as there Is no Barnsley Mandir (temple). Recently Divali lights have been lit in Barnsley town centre.

Local population 172 (Census, 2001 CE)

Basics of Islam

Founders and Shapers *Muhammad (pbuh), the last and greatest of The Prophets, was born in Makkah in 570 CE, into the Hashim clan. His father died before his birth and his mother when he was six. He was cared for by his grandfather and then an uncle. He worked as a caravan manager for a widow, *Khadija, who he later married. Around 40 years old he had a vision whilst meditating in a cave, of the Angel Jibril giving him words direct from Allah. With his subsequent visions these words were later recorded and collected as the Qur'an.

Around 613 CE, *Muhammad (pbuh) began to share these teachings. He fled from Makkah in 622 CE, in the Hijra, which is used as the basis of the Islamic calendar, as 1 AH. He fled to Yathrib, which became al-Madinah (City of the Prophet). A war continued between Makkah and al-Madinah until *Muhammad (pbuh) led a large army to Makkah in 630 CE.

Two years later he returned to Makkah on a pilgrimage, before dying there a few months later.

Succession and Early History
Plotting its succession through the Jewish and Christian faiths, which it regards as having deviated from the true faith. Its deviated from the true faith. Its

Prophets include *Adam,
*Ibraham (Abraham), *Musa
(Moses), *Dawud (David) and
*Isla (Jesus) (pbut).

From the seventh century CE, it developed in Arabia. After the death of The Prophet *Muhammad (pbuh) *Abu Bakr became his successor, the Khalifah of Makkah. Around 661 CE (39 AH) the Muslim world divided following the murder of *Ali (RAA) 4th successor of The Prophet, but also the sonin-law of *Muhammad (pbuh). The followers of *Ali, regarded by them as the first true followers are known as Shi'ite Muslims. The majority of Muslims worldwide however are Sunni Muslims. Islam quickly spread through the Middle East, North Africa and into the Iberian Peninsula.

Sacred Texts

The Holy Qur'an, the Words of Allah. Given through the Angel Jibrll to The ProphetMuhammad (pbuh), from around 610 CE, but received by Muslims as the direct word of God. Written in Classical Arabic and publicly read as such, according to tradition it has remained totally unchanged. It contains 114 chapters or Sûrahs. Some Muslims use translations for private use.

Creation stories

Hinted at in the Qur'an, with references such as Sûrah 13.

Major Festivals
Ramadan (Time of Fasting),
Fidul-Fitr (Fastival to break t

Eidul-Fitr (Festival to break the fast).

World Situation

Over 1 billion followers, making it the world's second largest faith. Predominantly in the Middle East, northern Africa and Indonesia, many of which countries are constituted as Islamic states. Muslims are now spread throughout most countries of the world.

Holiest Sites

The Ka'bah, in the Grand
Mosque at Makkah; al-Madinah;
the Dome of the Rock Mosque in Jerusalem (on the site of the Jewish Temple).

Barnsley History and Local places of worship The first Barnsley Mosque was burnt down in an arson attack soon after opening, a new Mosque and Community Centre then opened on Dodworth Road, Barnsley. Local population 505 (Census, 2001 CE).

Basics of the Jewish Faith

Founders and Shapers

About 2000 BCE Abram, later *Abraham, and his wife Sarai (Sarah) left Ur on the River Euphrates, in modem day Iraq, and following the sweep of the 'Fertile Crescent' entered the Promised Land of Canaan, in modern day Palestine / Israel. *Abraham was succeeded by a son, *Isaac, who in turn was succeeded by a son *Jacob, who changed his name to *Israel. He had twelve sons, the heads of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. The most famous of these was *Joseph. who became the chief minister of the Pharaoh of Egypt, and was joined by his family there during a major famine.

Centuries later the Israelites were slaves in Egypt and were led from slavery by *Moses, after the first Pesach, they escaped across the Reed Sea (an inlet of the Mediterranean) and received two stone tablets containing the Ten Commandments from God at a mountain in the Sinai Peninsula. After 40 years wandering the desert (after refusing an earlier entry) they re-entered the Promised Land, under *Moses'

assistant, *Joshua, conquering most of it.

Succession and Early History

Following various battles and leadership from various Judges, ending with the Prophet *Samuel. They asked for a King, and after *Saul, were succeeded by *Dawid, whose symbol Hagan Dawid, appears on the modern Israeli flag. *Dawid was succeeded by his son *Solomon, who built the first great Temple at Jerand the Jerusalem Talmud (400 DCE), are books of parables of faith, written in Hebrew and Aramaic. They seek to use scripture to analyse everyday situations and problems. They include the Mishna, Rabbinic commentary on the Torah, Gamara, legal discussions and Hagadah, stories of heroes usalem. Following *Solomon the kingdom split into two, Israel, the northern kingdom based around Samaria, and Judah, the southern kingdom based around Jerusalem. Following the destruction of the two capitals by Assyria (in 722 BCE) and Babylon (in 587 BCE) the leaders were carried into exile. Some scholars assert that the Jewish faith developed in that period and the subsequent return, during which a second Temple was built.

After Greek and Roman invasions under Alexander the Great (in 333 BCE) and General Pompey, the puppet King *Herod the Great, built a third Temple. After a rebellion in 66 CE, Jerusalem and its Temple were destroyed in 70 CE.

Though synagogues had existed previously, synagogue-based Rabbinic Jewish faith developed In the Diaspora that followed the fall of the Temple. Spanish Rabbi and philosopher Maimondes was a key figure with his Thirteen Principles.

The Jews have a history of persecutions and massacres, including at York in 1190 CE. They were expelled from Spain and Portugal in 1492 CE. Over six million Jews were murdered In the Shoah (Nazi Holocaust). After World War Two, a Jewish state, Israel was founded in 1948 CE, with many Jews from Europe and around the world moving there.

The faith has Orthodox, Reform and Liberal groupings, the latter two sometimes referred to as Progressives.

Sacred Texts

The Torah (or teaching), the five books said traditionally to be recorded by Moses. With later writings this forms the Tenakh (Hebrew Scriptures / Hebrew Bible).

The two Talmuds, the Babylonian Talmud (600 BCE) and the Jerusalem Talmud (400 DCE), are books of parables of faith, written in Hebrew and Aramaic. They seek to use scripture to analyse everyday situations and problems. They include the Mishna, Rabbinic commentary on the Torah, Gamara, legal discussions and Hagadah, stories of heroes.

Creation stories

Two stories at the start of Genesis (Genesis 1-3), recording the order of creation and the role of humanity in it.

Major Festivals

Pesach (Passover)
(commemorating the Exodus from Egypt, around 1250 BCE); Rosh Hashanah (celebrating New Year and Creation); Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement); Sukkot (Shelters, remembering the time in the desert); Hanukkah (Light festival): Shavuot (harvest festival), Purim (salvation from destruction by Queen Esther). An important remembrance is Yom Hashoah. A key to Jewish life is the weekly Shabbat (Sabbath - Holy Day) festival.

World Situation

There are about 20 million Jews worldwide.

Holiest Sites

Jerusalem, most notably the Western Wall, part of the Wall of the second Temple and Temple Mount area (which contains the Muslim Mosque: The Dome of the Rock).

Basics of the Sikh Dharam

Founders and Shapers/ Succession and Early History

Founded in the Punjab in India by *Guru Nanak, born 1469 CE at Tahwandi Sabo (now called Nankana Sahib). He was born a Hindu, but critical of the practice within the family. He married around the age of 16 a girl called *Sulakhni, and they had two sons.*Sri Chand and *Lakhnmi Das. He had a Muslim servant *Mardana. One day whilst bathing in a river he disappeared only to reappear three days later, proclaiming, "There is neither Hindu nor Muslim." After travelling to Hindu and Muslim sacred sites, he settled as a peasant farmer in Kartarpur. He built a dharamsala (community of buildings) and developed the Langar (communal meal). Guru *Nanak died in 1539 CE, after naming *Lehna, as his successor, he became Guru *Angad.

Guru *Angad developed the Gurmukhi script and collected Guru *Nanak's hymns. He was succeeded by eight more human Gurus: Guru *Amar Das, Guru *Ram Das, Guru *Arjan; Guru *Harobind; Guru *Har Rai; Guru *Har Krishnan; Guru *Tegh Bahadur and then his son, Guru *Gobind Singh. After his father was murdered when he was nine, he established an armed town, Paunta. From this base the Sikh faith was maintained and the Khalsa (community of initiated Sikhs) was established.

Sacred Texts

The Guru Granth Sahib, the current Guru, containing the words of the first ten Gurus. Written in the Gurmukhi script developed by Guru Angad, it contains 5,894 hymns and verses. All copies are identical containing 1,430 pages. On special occasions it is read from beginning to end, taking around 48 hours.

Major Festivals Balsakhi (Harvest / New Year), Diwali (Light festival), Hola Mohalia, when tests of skill and mock battles are held, as well as the birthdays of the Gurus, most notably the birthday of Guru *Nanak.

World Situation There are approximately 15 million Sikhs world-wide. The Sikh heartland, the Punjab Is split by the India / Pakistan border. Sikhs are largely found In the Indian populations of Britain, Canada and East Africa. This includes around 500,000 In Britain.

Holiest Sites

The Golden Temple at Amritsar (whose foundation stone was laid by Muslim saint, Mian Mir, and built by Guru *Arjan): Takht Patna Sahib; Anandpur and Takht Sri Hazur.

Barnsley History and Local places of worship

Local population 181 (Census, 2001 CE).

Basics of the Way of the Buddha

Founders and Shapers
*Siddhartha Gautama, the Shakyamuni *Buddha, lived around 563-486 BCE. Born a prince of the Sakya kingdom of southern Nepal, to Queen Maya.
At the age of 29 he travelled outside the palace for the first time.

As a result of the suffering he saw he gave up everything to wander, meditate and search for an explanation of all experiences in our sense-based lives (Samsara).

At the age of 35, he settled under a Bodhi Tree at Bodh Gaya, determined not to move until he had received Enlightenment. He travelled a few hundred miles north and taught his first disciples at Sarnath. He ordained followers, the Sangha, and taught until 80 years old. Though ill he travelled to Kushinagara, lay on his right side, and passed into Mahaparinivana, the great state beyond Nibbana.

Succession and Early History

The *Buddha left no successor, the teaching continued through many disciples, including his chief disciple *Ananda. His teachings spread throughout modern India, particularly after the conversion of *Asoka, ruler of all India (268-239 BCE). It then spread into Sri Lanka, Thailand, South-East Asia, China, Mongolia, Korea and Japan.

The main schools of the Way of the Buddha are the Theravada(Way of the Elders) based in South-East Asia and the Mahayana (Great Vehicle), which itself includes Zen and Tibetan.

Sacred Texts

Mahayana, Hinayana and in some strands Vajrayana (or Tantra). Focused on the Four Noble Truths, Death and Rebirth, Kamma, Dhamma and Sangha, being the meditation of the Way of the Buddha and seeking the practice of the virtuous life to achieve personal Enlightenment. This is part of the Eightfold Path.

Creation stories None.

Major Festivals

Wesak (day of the *Buddha's birth, Enlightenment and death) and Bodhi Day (Mahayana festival of the *Buddha's Enlightenment).

World Situation
