1. The Pavilion, Gateway Plaza, Sackville Street

Saturday night is cocktail club night at The Pavilion. Porn star martinis and cherry rum sours are on offer after 9pm, and the friendly staff pride themselves on making people feel welcome all week.

"We want people to want to come here, but also stay here, said manager, Ryan.

2. Pour House 22, Shambles Street

Fancy a gin? Look no further! This community-focused bar has 182, including many distilled locally in Barnsley's biggest gin selection. Manager Russell has also created over 40 cocktails, including several martinis. The bar organises special events and you can enjoy its drinks in the Italian restaurant next door.

Pour House 22 offers Barnsley's only gin flight, enabling customers to taste different varieties.

3. Soul Lounge, Market Hill

'The world-famous Soul Lounge' is the slogan of the home of soul and Motown in Barnsley. Enjoy a build-your-own style Funkin Cocktail, where the combination possibilities are endless. Dancing shoes are needed all weekend as there's live music on Saturdays and Sundays.

4. Evoo, Church Street

Want to try a world debut without leaving town? Enter Evoo, which claims to be the world's first 'barzzeria'. First class pizza is served in the Neapolitan style, with ingredients imported from Italy to ensure authenticity. Customers rave about the piña coladas and well-presented, well-made cocktails.

5. Hill 16, Market Hill

Let your tastebuds run wild. For when it comes to creating cocktails, Tony and Jess at Hill 16 really push the boat out. Popping candy fizz and a candyfloss martini are just two of the inventive options going down well with customers at the laid-back luxury bar.

6. Black Velvet, The Arcade

Subdued lighting, velvet seating and a cosy feel - hello, decadent date night destination! Black Velvet specialises in wine and Champagne, including Moët and Dom Pérignon, and is located close to The Civic theatre. Manager Erica ensures guests enjoy a luxurious experience and they also offer signature cocktails.

"Watch this space for Barnsley, says Tina - owner of Pour House 22 and Black Velvet - as the town experiences a resurgence, "It's going to be massive!"

7. Daddy Beanz, May Day Green

What first catches the eye at Daddy Beanz is the super stylish reclaimed decor - including a racing bike hanging from the ceiling. What will keep you there is their range of quality cocktails, including flat white and espresso martinis.

8. Cucina Sky Lounge, The Glass Works

Panoramic views from stunning floor-to-ceiling windows or the roof terrace greet discerning drinkers at Barnsley's first sky lounge. Even classic cocktails are given the Cucina twist, with historic research, imported ingredients and table theatre such as dry ice helping the drinks to truly stand out from the rest.

9. The Lemon Tree, Peel Square

Classic cocktails are on offer when you dine from a mouthwatering Turkish menu at this charming family-run restaurant. Espresso martinis, Sangria and passion fruit margaritas, to name a few, make lively accompaniments to meze platters or a chicken shish kebab. There's also Turkish wine, unusual gins and holiday favourite, Efes beer.

10. Moodi's Cocktail Bar, Wellington Street

It began life as a cocktail delivery service - but today Moodi's is a popular independent destination. Owner Grace Stead offers the personal touch, from her innovative cocktails including the Green Turtle, to help with customers' special occasions. Bottomless brunches and music bingo nights also bring people together at the Instagram-worthy pink flower bar.

Don't stop there! Go visit these venues, too.
