

Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council Code of Corporate Governance

1. Introduction to Delivering Good Governance

1.1 The Council is committed to ensuring good governance principles and management practices are adopted in all business activities to ensure public trust. This Code of Corporate Governance provides a public statement that sets out the way in which the Council will meet and demonstrate that commitment. It includes the political arrangements, administrative systems, policies, and processes as well as the culture and values that underpin arrangements for the effective:

- Allocation of resources in accordance with agreed policies and priorities
- Sound, transparent, and inclusive decision making.
- Management of the organisation, performance, and accountability for the use of those resources to achieve the desired outcomes for service users and communities.

1.2 “Delivering Good Governance in Local Government: Framework” (2016) published by CIPFA (Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy) provides guidance on the standards for local authority governance in the UK. This Framework sets out seven core principles of governance as detailed in the diagram below, and illustrates that good governance is dynamic and involves continuous evaluation and review.

- 1.3 Barnsley Council has adopted these principles of good governance and developed its Code of Corporate Governance to reflect its responsibilities. This Code sets out the key systems, policies and procedures that comprise the Council's Governance Framework.
- 1.4 The Council's key governance areas are reviewed annually to provide assurances with regards effectiveness as part of the preparation of the annual governance statement.
- 1.5 The Council believes that creating and sustaining a culture of good governance is as important as having a framework of policies and procedures. The Council requires members and officers to maintain the highest standards of ethics, conduct and behaviour and to act with honesty, integrity, and accountability in performing their duties. Ethical values are the moral guide for how we live our lives and make decisions. They also show why we should focus on building, enabling, and supporting a shared ethical culture where employees feel encouraged to do the right thing rather than just following a set of rules, it's vital that we can define ethical behaviour, spot unethical behaviour, and take steps to create a shared ethical culture that is fair and transparent. Truth and ethical responsibility should always come before reputation protection. Accountability also implies that members and officers must not shift the blame to others when things go wrong, but rather acknowledge their mistakes, learn from them and take corrective measures. By doing so, they can enhance the trust and confidence of the public and improve the performance and reputation of the council.
- 1.6 This Code aims to ensure that the Council is doing the right things, in the right way. Further information regarding each of the seven core principles and the behaviours and actions that demonstrate good governance in practice are detailed at Appendix A.

2. Monitoring and Review

- 2.1 Regulation 6(1)(a) of the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2015 requires an authority to conduct a review of the effectiveness of its systems of internal control and include a statement on the review with any published Statement of Accounts. This is known as the Annual Governance Statement.
- 2.2 As such the Council will monitor its governance arrangements for their effectiveness in practice and will review them on a continuing basis to ensure that they are up to date and working effectively. The Council's Governance Assurance Framework sets out in more detail how the Council will seek assurance on its adherence to the principles of governance.
- 2.3 On an annual basis the Leader of the Council and the Chief Executive will publish an Annual Governance Statement, which will:
- Assess how the Council has complied with the Code of Corporate Governance
 - Provide an opinion of the effectiveness of the Council's arrangements.
 - Provide details of how continual improvement in the systems of governance will be achieved.

3. Certification

3.1 We hereby certify our commitment to this Code of Corporate Governance and will ensure that the Council continues to review, evaluate, and develop the Council's governance arrangements to ensure continuous improvement of the Council's systems.
